

Skip to main content

BREAKING NEWS: Donald Trump is being sued by New York attorney general for fraud

WATCH LIVE: Sask. Coroners Service provides an update on the James Smith Cree Nation stabbing deaths

WINDSOR | News

'We're supporting our trucker convoy in Ottawa': Windsorites slow roll through city

Windsorites participate in a moving rally around the city "in solidarity" with the protest in Ottawa on Jan. 29, 2022. (Michelle Maluske / CTV News)

Michelle Maluske

Published Jan. 29, 2022 11:59 a.m. EST

Share

Meeting at Mic Mac Park Saturday morning, more than 200 vehicles took part in slow roll cruise on Huron Church Road to Highway 401.

Based on signs and writing on the vehicles, participants were protesting various pandemic protocols and restrictions. There were also lots of signs against Prime Minister Justin Trudeau specifically.

One attendee who spoke with CTV News says they participated because they are frustrated with the cross border restrictions.

"We have an international family there's a few things that affect us," says Melinda, who did not provide her last name.

"Due to the mandate that was imposed on Jan. 15, my American children are being kept from their mother in the United States. For us this is the saddest part. Our kids can't go and see their mom."

Complete Coverage

- Timeline: Trucker convoy protest in Ottawa

- 'Freedom convoy' rally hits Parliament Hill, demanding end to vaccine mandates

- Heavy police presence as truckers arrive in downtown Ottawa

- Top Canadian defence officials condemn protesters dancing on Tomb of the Unknown Soldier

- Trudeau concerned trucker convoy converging on Parliament Hill could turn violent

- Ottawa mayor calls out protesters who placed upside-down Canadian flag on Terry Fox statue

- Donald Trump voices support for truckers convoy protest in Ottawa

- Some 'freedom convoy' donors are using aliases of well-known Canadians
- What does the trucker convoy hope to accomplish?
- 'Embarrassment for the industry': Not all truckers support the 'freedom convoy'
- MPs warned about security risks related to convoy, O'Toole plans to meet truckers
- New order bans highway border blockades in Nova Scotia
- GoFundMe releasing $1 million of fundraising money to trucker convoy
- 'So many angry people': Experts say online conversation around trucker convoy veering into dangerous territory
- Truckers should have done more to prepare for vaccine mandate, experts say
- A look at Canada's vaccine mandates and public health restrictions

RELATED STORIES

- Truck drivers convoy continues in Windsor
- Truck convoy arriving in southwestern Ontario on Thursday
- Truck drivers convoy across Canada in protest of federal vaccine mandates

Windsor police were on scene but only to direct the traffic as the convoy wound its way through the city.

- ⓘ Report an error
- ✓ Editorial standards & policies
- T Why you can trust CTV News

ADVERTISEMENT

◀ Previous ▶ Next

MOST WATCHED

1

PM tries to sing 'Bohemian Rhapsody' in U.K. bar

WINDSOR TOP STORIES >